

Stagecraft - Behind the Scenes: Talk Show Edition!

Wednesday | 3:00 PM - 3:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: David Macaluso

What does it take to put on a talk show? Throughout this interactive class, students will learn about producing and scheduling guests either from our own group or interview real life professionals! What happens if we get a cancellation? Do you want to be part of the crew organizing the sets and call action? Do you want to be a host and interview a special guest? Do you want to improve and be a surprise guest star? Will you film the segment?

With so much collaboration this class will nurture personal and group creativity, confident communication techniques, along with the actual technicalities that “behind the scenes” at a talk show.

David Macaluso’s stage, acting and production experience make him the ideal instructor to teach students the many organizational aspects to the Stagecraft of Talk Shows.
