

Film, Book, and Character Analysis: Harry Potter

Tuesday | 4:00 PM - 4:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: Brittany Ennover

Calling all Harry Potter fans to join us for this interactive class being offered in person at our studio and via Zoom! Students will have the opportunity to engage their research and group communication skills as they delve into the magical world of Harry Potter!

The roles of beloved characters will be explored as students analyze how hardships and triumphs shape decisions and relationships. All aspects of the film, from what inspired the author's writing and even the talented thought behind the unique music will be presented.

Under Brittany Ennover's guidance, students will be able to utilize their critical thinking and creative minds as they enjoy group collaboration to become well-versed in the world of Harry Potter.
