

Sports History: The Summer Olympics

Mondays | 4:00 PM - 4:50 PM | Via Zoom and/or in-person

Instructor: Jason Baron

Immerse yourself in the rich history and excitement of the Summer Olympic Games. Join us as we embark on an interactive journey through past Olympics while also delving into the highly anticipated events of the upcoming Games in France.

Explore the history and evolution of the Summer Olympics, and gain insights into iconic moments, athletes, and competitions. Students will utilize and enhance their research, presentation, analytical thinking and effective communication styles as they dive into the social, political, and economic impact of hosting the Olympics on host cities and countries; and share perspectives and insights on the significance of the Olympics in today's world.

Students will showcase their passion for the Olympics through student presentations highlighting their favorite events and memorable experiences.
